LOGAN'S NINETY-SEVENTH WIN.

Alexander Shield's veteran Logan scored his ninety-seventh victory at Ideal Park yesterday. He was in the third event, a mile dash for all ages, and on his class looked like a sure winner. Still in the early stages of the betting he was as good as 2 to 1, but at post time even money was the best price in the ring. The old horse loves the soft going and broke away from the post like a two-year-old. Little Shields got him cut off on the first turn and his backers were given a scare, but only for an instant, for down the back stretch Logan went to his field. On the far turn only Jersey Lad was left and in the straight he too cracked. Then the old turf noble went to the front and won as jauntily as he used to win in 1893. It was the popular victory of the day. After the race Mr. Shields remarked to a number of horsemen that he was very lucky, but added, "Yes, he has won ninety-six races in the same lucky way and been beaten by heads or noses just as often."

B. J. Johnson had a hard luck story after Loudon was beaten by Florence P in the last race. Mr. Johnson had picked the first four winners and had a fat combination, winding up on Sidkel. He bet $100 on his horse at 4 to 5 and stood to win well no matter which one of the pair won. When Florence P came tearing through the stretch, Mr. Johnson went to cogitation, and after the race, left the track.

The track was very muddy and the card unbalanced, consequently winning favorites were numerous. Pinchback was a liberal even money chance in the first. Holy Terror a 1 to 2 shot in the second, Logan at even money in the third and Umbrella a surety at 1 to 3 in the fourth. These four won romping and the talent had quite a bit laid up when it came to Loudon's race and from the way he was played they must have put it all down.

Tully Coulter and Wm. Oliver were busy collecting election bets, and J. E. Cushing, the only democrat on the track, could not be found.

Time, 26½, 52½, 1:06½.
Winner—B. g. 3, by Powhattan—Silver Thread.
Post 30 seconds. Start fair. Won easily; second handily; third swerving. Pinchback was away the best. Little Thorn did not bleed and ran a good race. Agatine has quite a turn of speed but is a coward. With an equal break Rosa May would have been placed. Boy took her round every horse in the race. Tramp was in his own way. The field was cheap.
Scratched—Rosalia III, 99; Loretta, 99; Annalye, 99; Devault, 102; The Merchant, 102; Roger B, 102; Eldorado, 104; Dave Sloan, 104; Julie, 99.

Time, 26, 51¼, 1:06½.
Winner—B. c. by Panique—Silver Charm.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second with something left; third driving hard. Holy Terror liked the going and merely galloped all the way. Lady Callahan had no chance to win and was given an easy race. She is an honest filly. Al Lone made a strong bid on the end.
Scratched—Inceratus, 103; Vanessa, 105; Theresa H, 105; The Plutocrat, 108; Domitor, 108.
Overweights—Al Lone, 2 pounds.

Time, 26½, 52½, 1:06½, 1:22, 1:49¼.
Winner—B. h. 8, by Voltigeur—Pert.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second and third driving. Logan outclassed his field. He was shut off on first turn, but all the boy had to do was to hold the old horse's head up. He won himself and as he chose. Swordsmen, none too well ridden, ran a good race. He is a fair colt in the mud. Colmer could not hold Cynthia H's head up. She floundered all over the track. Boy was also too light to ride Jersey Lad. He had a lot of speed but tired on the end. Minerva is a bad mud runner.
Overweights—Snag, 3½ pounds; Swordsmen, 3.
